OUTING CONTEST CLOSES. Great Race for Free Vacations Ends This Evening.

The great Tec-Dec Summer Outing prize contest, as a result of which forty-two persons will be enabled to enjoy abso-contest, as a result of which forty-two persons will be enabled to enjoy absouately without cost delightful trips to summer resorts, will close to-day, after running six weeks.

Bosides the couples whose names appear as competitors in the contest, each of the fourteen winning couples will be entitled to name a chaperon, who will share with them the luxury of a magnificent summer vacation free.

There are nearly seventy couples ensisted in the race, and the past week has been the most exciling of the entire contest. Thousands of votes have been recorded already, and to-day, the last day, promises to break all records. Hundreds of thousands of coupons have been turned in for the contestants, and there will be a great rush of them to-day.

Yesterday afternoon all the voting boxes in various sections of the city were brought into the business office of The Times-Dispatch, No. 316 East Main Street, and to-day all coupons and voting certificates must be turned in at the same place. At this time no one can forciell who will be among the fourteen winners.

The contest will positively close at Sociock sharp this evening—on the stroke of the bell. Whether brought in, sent in, or mailed, coupons and voting certificates must be in the boxes by 8 P. M.

The votes will be counted and the result ascertain, tabulated and announced in to-morrow's Times-Dispatch. An important announcement to those having a chance at the great consolation prize trip, will be printed in to-morrow's issue also.

AS WE WERE SAYING,

If it were not so, we would not keep on saying it, but as it is true, it is for your advantage as well as ours to have it thoroughly understood that there is a reason for the success of Tec-Dee Want Ads. The reason for the success is that the Tee-Dec Want Ads, cost little, pay much and are read everywhere in Richmond and Virginia. These are the three requirements for profitable advertising. To use the Tee-Dee Want Ads, is to be convinced of their merit. Try them and see.
